The Adair County Missionary Convention.

The Missionary Convention convened at Cane Valley, Friday night, Oct. 26, 1917, at 7 o'clock p. m. Pres. F. J. Barger called the house to order and after devotional services, he delivered an address on the "Christian Armor." Tobias Huffaker made an address on "Does God Hear and Answer Prayer?" The following preachers were present at the Saturday morning session: H. B. Gwinn, H. Gordon Bennett, L. C. Young, W. G. Montgomery, F. J. Barger, C. C. Lloyd, Tobias Huffaker and Z. T. Williams. Saturday was a rainy day the attendance was small. Good addresses were made by the following preachers: H. B. Gwinn, "The New Third District and Its Needs." W. G. Montgomery, "The Blunder of the Builders." Saturday afternoon session was conducted by the C. W. B. M. of Columbia. Mrs. R. F. Rowe delivered an address on The Origin and Aim of the C. W. B. M., Mrs. Z. T. Williams made an address on The Great Commission and what it means to you. The reports from the churches were then made as follows: There are 17 congregations in the county, ten of them were represented by written reports with the following summary: Membership 1196, additions 86, paid for Missions $339, for Orphan Home $75. There are ten Bible Schools in these ten churches and nine of them have monthly preaching. The C. W. B. M. made an offering of $61 during the year. The program was carried out for Saturday and Sunday. H. B. Gwinn preached the sermon Sunday morning. There was a good attendance at both Bible school and church services Sunday morning. A splendid dinner was served on the ground both Saturday and Sunday. The Cane Valley people always serve fine meals on such occasions. Judge Jones made a rousing Red Cross speech in the afternoon to a good audience, and received 19 new members. Z. T. Williams was elected President, for the ensuing year, F. J. Barger Vice President, Mrs. Maggie Ruberts Secretary. The next convention will be held at Glenville the last Sunday in Sept., 1918, beginning on Friday night before. Z. T. Williams.

Public Sale.

Having sold my farm it is necessary for me to have a sale. Therefore, on Saturday, the 10th day of November, I will sell to the highest bidder, on the farm where I now reside, one mile from Columbia, the following:

Horses and mules,
All kinds of cattle, including milk cows and calves.

Big lot of first-class hay and corn.
All kinds of farming tools and machinery.

Many other articles, too numerous to mention.

The sale will commence at 9:30 a. m. Terms made known on day of sale. 1-21 R. K. Young.

Roads Rule the World

Not kings nor conquerors, not courts nor constables, not ships nor soldiers. The road is the only royal line in a democracy, the only legislature that never changes, the only court that never sleeps, the only army that never quits, the first aid to the redemption of any nation, the exodus from stagnation in any society, the call from savagery in any tribe, the high priest of prosperity after the order of Melchisedec without beginning of days or end of life. The road is umpire in every war, and when the new map is made it simply pushes on its great campaign of help, hope, brotherhood, efficiency and peace.

Hartfield.

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 14, 1917, the dear angel visited the home of Mrs. Vera Hartfield, and took her beloved baby, Ellis. He was a victim of croup and was only sick about 24 hours. He was four years of age. Ellis was an attractive child, every one who knew him loved him. He was very much devoted to his mother, brother and sisters, his father having been dead two years. He was laid to rest in the Summershade cemetery, after a splendid talk given by Rev. Claud Squires. I would say to the mother, let us sorrow not, as those who have no hope. Ellis is not dead, has only fallen asleep.

A Cousin.

A letter from Mr. Paul Hughes states that he has accepted a position on the editorial department, St. Louis Star, and that he has removed from Booneville, Mo., to the former city. He is a very capable and reliable young man, and we predict that he will make good.

Halloween at Lindsey-Wilson.

The pupils of Lindsey-Wilson enjoyed their annual Halloween celebration last Friday night.

The enjoyment of the evening began with a hike over the campus lead by a soldier boy and a Red Cross nurse, who finally conducted their followers into the gymnasium, decorated with autumn leaves and corn shocks and lighted by Jack o' lanterns, where the grand march was enjoyed by all specially the on lookers for in this masked array might be seen the representatives of almost every country, except Germany.

The spooks were there likewise the Jap, the Indian and two dusky maids from far off Africa. Prizes were offered for the best disguised and were won by Miss Verlie Phelps and Mr. Elmer Ashby.

All had a glimpse into the future as told them by a mysterious gypsy who had a tent in one corner of the room and later in the evening a witch rode in upon a broom and described for each one his future mate.

Amusing games were played and refreshments consisting of cider, ginger bread, apples, chestnuts and peanuts were served.

Married at Lebanon.

Mr. David E. Gowdy, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Gowdy, of Campbellsville, who is a prominent young merchant, well-known in Columbia, was happily married on Tuesday, the 30th ult., to Miss Hallene Miller, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Miller, of Lebanon. The rites were beautifully solemnized by Rev. J. L. Murrell, of the Methodist Church. The couple will reside at Campbellsville.

Everything indicates that Adair and all adjoining counties will be tested this coming year for oil. A Pennsylvania Company is now at work in Casey county, and two foreign companies were represented here a few days ago. The representatives are examining leases, seeing that they are all properly recorded, etc. They also state that work in earnest will commence soon.

The meeting closed at the Christian church last Wednesday night. During its progress twenty-seven made confessions. Twenty-four united with the Christian Church, twenty by baptism, four from other congregations, same denomination, and two who will join other churches. Eld Bennett will commence his meeting at Jamestown to-night.

I keep on hands a full stock of coffins, caskets, and robes. I also keep Metallic Caskets, and Steel Boxes and two hearses. We keep extra large caskets. Prompt service night or day. Residence Phone 29, office phone 198. 45-1 yr J. F. Triplett, Columbia, Ky.

HIGHEST QUALITY

Nell & Son regret that they have to announce to lovers of the picture show that the war tax, levied by the government, forces them to raise the prices of admission. Every ticket sold is taxed and from now on the price of admittance will be 11 cents for adults, 6 cents for children. They hope that the necessity for this move will not cause them to lose any patrons, and as soon as the tax is removed the extra one cent will be dropped.

Mr. C. S. Harris threshed out 253 bushels of buckwheat, grown on 12 acres. D. B. Redmon, 104 bushels from 6 acres; and Alfred Murrell 524 bushels off 6 acres. Quite a number of farmers of Adair have turned their attention to this class of grain. It is a fine feed and makes very palatable and nutritious bread.

I have a fine thoroughbred black Berkshire boar, ready for service, $1 cash at the gate. J. N. Squires. 1-21

I have a few pure bred White Leghorn hens and roosters that I will sell for $1.00 each if taken by the 10th of Nov. Mrs. Jno. N. Conover. 2-11

Rev. F. E. Lewis, of the Lindsey-Wilson, preached two very interesting discourses at the Methodist church Sunday, the pastor being in a meeting at Tabor.

Columbia, Kentucky.

Rev. and Mrs. B. T. Watson received a letter from their son, Thomas Tarlton, who belongs to the New York Rainbow regiment, stating that he had landed safely in France, and that he was well. Two weeks before receiving this letter they had one from him written in New York, showing that he had made a quick voyage over. The soldiers who land in France do not give their postoffice, but head their letters "Somewhere in France."

Mr. Ewing Stults, of this place who is a special agent for the Continental Fire Insurance Company, and who has been located at Knoxville for three years, has been notified by his company that he has been removed to Louisville, and that his office will be in the Starks building, and that he is to take charge of same the 15th of December.

The Halloween party given at the home of Mr. Geo. H. Nell, last Wednesday night was largely attended. The party was given by Misses Alleene Nell and Marshall Paul, many of their young friends attending and also a number of grown persons, who put in an appearance, to see the costumes and ghost like appearance of the wearers. It was a gathering that afforded a great deal of amusement. Some of the very small tots became scared, and had to be taken to the back ground.

Between twenty and thirty of the Adair county soldiers, who were in the Cantonment at Louisville, have been transferred to Hattiesburg, Miss. Their names have not been published, but we learn that Edwin Cravens, a young Dulworth and a young Vaughn were in the bunch.
